Dear Eric:

We missed you at the Boston convention. Congratulations on your 75 years of ANA membership!

I wanted to remind you of our discussion about the Audubon print and your role in its discovery. Are you still hoping to write an article about this for THE NUMISMATIST?

Kindest regards,

Barbara

Dear Barbara ;:
Thank you for mentioning the 75 years of my ANA membership.

I am leaving Martha's Vineyard (president Onama is presently only 1 & 1/2 miles away from us) on September. 5 for St. Louis.

The grouse article will be published by the University of Pennsylvania Press on September 1, 2010. The early press release caused considerable publicity because AP, Wall St J, Reuters, etc obtained the text very early and left me with explanations to make. The Philadelphia Inquirer gave it tremendous press as did the St. Louis paper, neither of which I had any input. It is written from an Audubon point because my coauthor and the manuscript reviewers wanted it that way. I plan to revise and rewrite it much more from a numismatic point of view and have already begun. I will do the best I can in revising it as promptly as I can, the sooner the better. I will look forward to your editing it. Think of major problems in other disciplines which numismatics has solved as that is going to be the opening theme.

Any early suggestions you and your staff have will be most welcome. Eric

Dear Barbara:

You telephoned me and asked me to write something in connection with the selection of Tony Terranova for the ANA Hall of fame or something else important at ANA. I decided to write a ditty which I hope you will improve or suggest wording change. The Latin order attempted comedy is a controversy among researchers in his American Colonial field as you know. Here is :

Our honored professional numismatist
Operates without a staff
His superb mind as a specialist
Prevents him from making a gaff.

He helps others enjoy varieties
Reducing some of their anxieties

The word order of CONSTELLATIO NOVA
Is based on the name TERRANOVA
& because he lives in EBORAC NOVA

Our amazing sharp - eyed Tony
Can easily detect a phony.

Cheers for our ANTHONY TERRANOVA
He Is our numismatic idol CASANOVA

Congratulations from

Dear Barbara:

Please be kind enough to send me 3 extra copies off The Numismatist for September 2011 because it has in it the Reichenberger article on the Forgotten Nickel which I helped him prepare. Keep up your good work. My best to you.

Dear Eric & Maureen:

It is with great pleasure that I inform you that your article, "18th-Century Writings on the Continental Currency Dollar Coin," which appeared in the 2014 volume of THE NUMISMATIST, has been selected by a panel of judges to receive the first-place Heath Literary Award. The award includes $250, engraved silver medals and imprinted certificates.

As each of you receives a medal and a certificate, would you like them to be engraved/lettered with both of your names (that is, "Eric P. Newman & Maureen Levine • 1st Place • 2015") or your individual names (that is, Eric's medal /certificate reads "Eric P. Newman • 1st Place • 2015", and Maureen's medal/certificate reads "Maureen Levine • 1st Place • 2015")? Since the article was such a collaborative effort, we did not feel we could make this choice for you.

We will divide the award's cash prize between the two of you, unless you instruct otherwise.

IN ADDITION, you also have won the first-place Wayte & Olga Raymond Memorial Literary award, which includes a $400 cash prize and certificates. The certificates can be lettered in the same fashion as the Heath Literary medals and certificates, based on what you choose.

The awards will be presented during the ANA World's Fair of Money in Chicago at the Awards Presentation/Member & Donor Reception on Thursday, August 13, beginning at 4 p.m. in Room 23 of the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center in Rosemont, Illinois.

If you do not plan to attend the convention, you may name someone to accept the awards for you, or your awards can be mailed to you following the close of the convention. Award checks will be sent separately via U.S. Postal Service following the convention.

Congratulations! I look forward to hearing from your at your earliest convenience.

Kindest regards,

Barbara

Hi Barbara,

I have spoken with Eric, and we would like both names to appear on the medals and all certificates. Please donate our award money to the Young Numismatists program.

I am planning to attend the reception in Rosemont and look forward to seeing you in August.

As Eric noted, we are very honored.

Best,
